

Studies in Educational Evaluation

CONTENTS

Volume 46, 2015

EVALUATING FACULTY DEVELOPMENT Guest Editors: Ann Stes and Annemarieke Hoekstra

		Editorial
Ann Stes and Annemarieke Hoekstra	1	Convergence in diversity: Evaluating faculty development across the globe
		Faculty Development in its Social Context
Susan Van Schalkwyk, Brenda Leibowitz, Nicoline Herman and Jean Farmer	4	Reflections on professional learning: Choices, context and culture
Sara Van Waes, Piet Van den Bossche, Nienke M. Moolenaar, Ann Stes and Peter Van Petegem	11	Uncovering changes in university teachers' professional networks during an instructional development program
Gregory Hum, Cheryl Amundsen and Esma Emmioglu	29	Evaluating a teaching development grants program: Our framework, process, initial findings, and reflections
		Reflection as part of Professional Learning
K. Lynn Taylor and Sandra K. Znajda	39	Demonstrating the impact of educational development: The case of a course design collaborative
Tobias B.B. Boerboom, Renée E. Stalmeijer, Diana H.J.M. Dolmans and Debbie A.D.C. Jaarsma	47	How feedback can foster professional growth of teachers in the clinical workplace: A review of the literature
Anne Nevgi and Erika Löfström	53	The development of academics' teacher identity: Enhancing reflection and task perception through a university teacher development programme
Annemarieke Hoekstra and Jocelyn R. Crocker	61	Design, implementation, and evaluation of an ePortfolio approach to support faculty development in vocational education
Susan Bickerstaff and Maria S. Cormier	74	Examining faculty questions to facilitate instructional improvement in higher education
		Towards Systemic Evaluation of Faculty Development
Denise Chalmers and Di Gardiner	81	An evaluation framework for identifying the effectiveness and impact of academic teacher development programmes
		Discussion of the Contributions to this Special Issue
Alenoush Saroyan and Keith Trigwell	92	Higher education teachers' professional learning: Process and outcome