

Contents

Organisational cultures, workload and teacher wellbeing

- 6 Reducing workload improves teacher wellbeing and has no negative effects on student attainment: A meta-analysis of teacher-led quantitative studies
Richard Churches, Robin Hall and Kate Sims
- 10 How can school leaders maximise teacher resilience?
Natasha Raheem
- 14 Creating coherence to manage workload and wellbeing in ITT
Henry Sauntson
- 18 A culture of improvement: How changes to teachers' working conditions influence student outcomes
David Weston, Bethan Hindley and Maria Cunningham
- 21 Supporting teachers to support learners: Prioritising teacher wellbeing for optimal student outcomes
Cara Carey

Creating an effective, supportive learning environment

- 24 Exploring the evidence base: The role of routines in creating an effective learning environment
Ann-Marie Argyropulo-Palmer
- 27 In it for the long haul: Building trusting relationships with parents
Jean Gross, Nicola Noble and Liz Robinson

- 31 Students' perceptions of oracy: Implications for schools
Victoria Cook, Laura Guihen and Amy Gaunt
- 35 A hard habit to break? The power of independent study behaviours in the sixth form
Katie Cork
- 39 Fostering joy in the academically rigorous English classroom
Dena Eden
- 42 Considerations of the whole-school reading environment when redesigning the English curriculum
Natasha Crellin
- 44 A reflection on how and why we changed our Key Stage One learning environments
Mary Norton
- 46 'I did it!': Valuing resilience in the Early Years
Verity Downing

Developing inclusive practices

- 50 Shaping the space: Learning environment and SEMH
Beth Greville-Giddings
- 54 How can the secondary mainstream classroom be more inclusive for pupils with ADHD?
Claire Pass
- 58 It's easier to be what you can see: Supporting EAL learners in multilingual classrooms
Johanna Thomson

- 61 Equity and English as an additional language: Looking beyond deficit and asset lenses
Jacob Huckle
- 64 Supporting students who use English as an additional language: Lightening the cognitive load
Emily Walker
- 66 Connecting to school and each other: Towards a new paradigm of a school response to mental health
Colleen McLaughlin

Professional learning and development

- 70 Developing effective teacher-student relationships: Learning from the experts
Robbie Burns
- 74 Might instructional coaching be particularly helpful in supporting teachers to create an effective learning environment?
Kyle Bailey and Matt Dunne
- 78 Online and informal support for teaching placements: A case study from one higher education institution in England
James Bettany, Claudia Blandon, Cara Baer, Jan Georgeson, Alison Egan and Elena Revyakina

Access these articles and more, plus additional articles from all past issues at:
my.chartered.college/impact