

Contents

t Teachers, assessment and learning

- 6 Quality conversations: The role of collaboration in assessment
Helen Angell
- 10 The accountability paradox
Chris Larvin
- 13 Issues of trust in teachers' assessments: Can the profession move forward?
Mick Walker
- 17 Supporting teachers in their early careers
Nick Gibb
- 20 Principles and purposes of assessment in the classroom
Sarah Earle

a Assessment principles and purpose

- 24 Assessment beyond levels in the Early Years
Julian Grenier
- 28 Revitalising rubrics
Ryan Campbell and Christian Bokhove
- 32 The place of public examinations in future school assessment
Alex Standish and David Perks
- 36 How can issues of validity and reliability be addressed to strengthen internal school assessment?
Tom Johns, Simon Child and Sally Brown

- 41 A framework for defining and assessing creative thinking
Claire Scoular and Jonathan Heard

f Formative assessment and effective feedback

- 46 The key principles to effective feedback
Michael Chiles
- 48 Investigating young children's learning through a schema lens: How can schema theory inform practice in an Early Years class in a special school?
Antonio Griffiths-Murru and Christine Parker
- 51 'When does feedback help me to learn?' Children's perceptions of feedback in a primary school
Tracey Feil
- 54 Secondary modern language students and assessment: Conceptions, metacognition and emotions
Simon Baron
- 57 Reimagining the 'characteristics of effective teaching and learning' as a framework for feedback in the Early Years
Verity Downing
- 60 The importance of formative assessment and responsive teaching in the post-COVID era
Megan Price
- 62 Reconsidering the role of mock exams in schools
Nick Pointer

- 66 Written lesson observation feedback in initial teacher education
Steve Puttick

C Assessment, practice and curriculum

- 70 An alternative to GCSEs: Reuniting curriculum, pedagogy and assessment
Hugh Stephens
- 72 What does effective whole-class feedback in English look like?
Richard McDonald
- 75 Assessment and initial teacher education in Wales at a time of change: Adapting and learning
David James, Alex Morgan, Emmajane Milton, Anna Bryant, Jennie Clement, Judith Kneen and Gary Beauchamp
- 78 Building a responsive teaching culture by designing and using hinge questions
Victoria Foster, Simon Underhill, Kim Gillingham, Hazel Brinkworth

