

Historical Association
The voice for history

A Sense of Period Edition
Issue 182 / March 2021

TEACHING HISTORY

in this issue

REGULARS

EDITORIAL 02

HA SECONDARY NEWS 03

HA UPDATE 04

08

TRIUMPHS SHOW 16
Anna Lovelock

WHAT HAVE HISTORIANS
BEEN ARGUING ABOUT... 31
medieval science
and medicine?
Seb Falk

WHAT'S THE WISDOM ON... 50 consequences

ARTICLES

EMILY TOETTCHE AND ELIZA WEST

Exploring the 'remembered': using oral history to enhance a local history partnership

20

MATTHEW FEARNs-DAVIES

Does it matter who Vesalius's favourite lecturer was? Using individuals' stories to help GCSE students to explain change and causation

36

ALEXIA MICHALAKI

Deepening Year 9's knowledge for better causation arguments: using greater detail to push students to reason with given causal categories

56

JACK MILLS

'One big cake': in what ways does substantive knowledge of the 'mid-Tudor crisis' emerge in the writing of Year 7 students?

64

HOLLY HISCOX

The mechanics of history: helping A-level students to uncover the processes of claim construction that underpin different interpretations

MOVE ME ON 76

MUMMY, MUMMY... 80

The Historical Association
59a Kennington Park Road
London SE11 4JH
Telephone: 020 7735 3901
Fax: 020 7582 4989