A) READING

1.- Read the text and answer the questions with complete sentences. (3 points)

My life has changed entirely since my husband and I divorced six years ago. We used to live in a one-room rented flat. I worked in a supermarket and he was a cook in a very expensive restaurant. We used to get up at 7 o'clock, have breakfast together and go to work. I always had lunch on my own because he ate at the restaurant. In the evening, I prepared dinner and he used to do the washing up. He didn't want to cook at home! At weekends we used to visit his parents or my parents. I wanted to have children, but he didn't. Then, one day he said that he wasn't happy and he needed to have a different life. I felt awful but I decided to move far from there, far from my memories.

Now I live in a beautiful house with plenty of room, a big garden and wonderful views of the sea and mountains. I get up at 10 o'clock and I prepare different meals. Then I take these meals to some old people who can't move. They feel so happy that, when I leave, there's always a big smile on my face. It's really nice to be a social worker. I've made a lot of friends, and at night we all meet up in a pub and sing along in a Karaoke bar. I've even started playing in a band! You know, I think my life is much happier now. The only thing I miss is having children ...
