FINA!

CANELA FINA!

offers a wide range of workshops designed to promote student involvement, whether that be, acting out a play, painting a masterpiece or learning the moves to flamenco.

Workshops revolve around these core principles:

- To promote Spanish learning, enhanced with a real taste of Spain.
- To enrich students with quality cultural activities to breakdown barriers and stereotypes.

Our flexible approach, created in liaison with schools, helps us to guarantee that every workshop is tailored to meet the needs of the students and their level of Spanish learning. We also ensure workshops meet the curriculum requirements for each year group, providing activities and dossiers for pre and post workshops. Everything is designed to encourage continuity of vocabulary and grammar and also to improve pronunciation.

TESTIMONIAL

Very organized and friendly to work with. María was responsive and patient while planning and organizing the day, adapting the resources and programme specifically to our needs.

The musicians and dancers were first class and work extremely well with our 12 and 13 yr old pupils, talking to them in an appropriate manner so that teachers were able to take a back seat role and manage the other aspects of the day.

The performance was first rate! Impressive dancing, music, guitar playing and singing – a true flamenco show! Fantastic resources.

Being able to choose which language to produce the dossiers and presentation in is perfect and adaptable”.

Martha Wathmough – Teacher of Spanish at Bristol Grammar School.(Flamenco Workshop – 96 Year 8 students).

All workshops can be adjusted to cater for larger groups of students in English, Spanish or both languages. Please enquire or check the canelafina.co.uk website for further information.
